RISK FACTORS - The value of any portfolio serviced by Integra Private Wealth may go down and up, positive returns are not guaranteed, and investors may get back an amount that is less than the money invested. Aside from macroeconomic factors that affect all investments to varying degrees, some of the unique factors that could lead to adverse returns include, but are not limited to:

BUSINESS RISK - Uncertainty of dividend flows caused by the nature of the business of the issuers of stocks, bonds and other securities. For example, the stock price of automobile companies may suffer in the event of a downturn in consumer spending. FINANCIAL RISK - The uncertainty produced by how issuers finance their investments. For example, the government of an emerging economy that issued bonds denominated in US$ may find it more costly if US$ interest rates rise. LIQUIDITY RISK - The ease/difficulty with which an investment can be converted to cash and the uncertainty of the price to be received. CURRENCY RISK - The uncertainty introduced by buying and selling securities in a currency is different from the investor's own. COUNTRY RISK - The uncertainty of returns caused by changes in the political/economic environment in a country. MARKET RISK - The Fund may take positions in traded instruments, including listed securities. All securities present a risk of loss of capital. UNDERLYING COLLECTIVE INVESTMENT SCHEMES - Portfolios may have a substantial part of their investments in collective investment schemes. Accordingly the value of the underlying investments may be affected by the fees charged by these schemes and applicable from time to time. COUNTERPARTY RISK - Counterparty risk is the risk that the person or institution with whom you have entered a financial contract - which is a counterparty to the contract - will default on the obligation and fail to fulfil that side of the contractual agreement.
